Just relax and unwind

Ta Mill is a secluded rural hideaway set in peaceful hollow of 45 acres on the fringes of Bodmin Moor, in an area of outstanding beauty. Uniquely Cornish, surrounded by rolling countryside it is an idyllic place to relax and unwind.

A babbling brook meanders through the grounds. Soak up the quiet ambience and breathtaking scenery where nature thrives.

Our traditional Cornish cottages each have a character of their own with original features from past centuries - a delightful combination of stone, slate and exposed beams.

Ta Mill offers high quality self-catering accommodation in this beautiful, tranquil valley where you can escape the pressure of everyday life.

You can choose one of three detached two bedroom lodges overlooking one of the wildlife ponds or enjoy stunning unspoilt views across the valley from one of four skandi-style chalets.

Magnificent birds of prey can be seen swooping down the valley and nesting swallows are spotted in every corner.

Ewes and lambs gambol in the surrounding fields and you can get close to new born lambs in Spring.

Delight at the discovery of Ta Mill's thriving wildlife ponds and continue through a picturesque valley blossoming gorse and dramatic stone outcrops to find St. Clether's Holly Well.

The location couldn't be more perfect for touring both Devon and Cornwall and is within easy reach of the dramatic Heritage Coastline of North Cornwall and the untamed beauty of Bodmin Moor and Dartmoor.
